

February 08, 2026: On the First Arrest in the Guthrie Case

Honestly, I don't even have the time. (Surprise, surprise, it was someone involved in dirty government dealings . . .)

Derrick Callella was part of an embezzlement scheme

Before his arrest, Callella was part of an embezzlement scheme in which 13 Los Angeles County employees allegedly stole more than $430,000 in unemployment benefits between 2020 and 2023.

According to the LADA, he previously worked as an Intermediate Clerk in the Case Department of Health Services and allegedly stole $9,984 in unemployment benefits between May 6, 2020 and Jan. 20, 2022. His arraignment was set for Nov. 20, 2025. Callella is due back in court in Los Angeles on March 31.

Related: Savannah Guthrie's Missing Mom: Derrick Callella Arrested by FBI, Admitted Sending Bitcoin Ransom Request

Derrick Callella is also known as “Secret Mutilator”

After a bit of digging, you can find Callella's alternate persona: a musician by the name of Secret Mutilator. According to his Bandcamp, he has released at least 11 bundles of music— ranging from EPs to albums. On Facebook, he describes his music as “SLASH ‘N BURN MODERN-SOUND TERRORISTS LUXED IN LAWLESSNESS & OUR CLOTHES ARE A MESS.” Along with that, the hoaxer sells merch featuring a photo from a Russian mafia propaganda poster promoting anti-government themes.

TRUMP ADMIN: “There are no connections. Do not believe anything you see with your own eyes. We will inform you of what you are allowed to believe at a later date. Until then, ‘Murica - n - stuff!”